

Course Description:

- European Course in Minimally Invasive Neurological Therapy (ECMINT) teaches trainees in Intervention Neuroradiology all the elements of the specialty curriculum as defined by the Neuroradiology subsection of the European Union of Medical Specialist (UEMS) and prepares them for the ESMINT diploma
- ECMINT 2.2 is the second of four courses which will make up the ECMINT curriculum
- The course topic is:

Interventional Neuroradiology Techniques:

Cerebral Aneurysms

- A structured program of lectures and tutorials
- Held in English, in a teaching environment dedicated to excellence in theoretical and practical teaching of current standards of Interventional Neuroradiology Techniques
- Places on the course are limited
- This course provides 28 CPD credits in accordance with the CPD Scheme of the Royal College of Radiologists and EACCME credits applied for

ECMINT 2.2 20th – 23rd June 2017

Course Organisation:

Dr. Shelley Renowden
Pr. James Byrne
Miss Tarryn Ching

ESMINT Director of Education
Course Director
Course Organiser

Venue:

St Anne's College
Woodstock Road
Oxford
OX2 6HS

Registration:

To register and for further information please contact:
tarryn.ching@nds.ox.ac.uk

Board and Lodging:

Accommodation (non-smoking) will be provided to all participants at St Anne's College

Registration Fee £750

- includes:
- ECMINT 2.2 Course Fee
 - Accommodation in College
 - All meals during the Course

The course is facilitated by The Nuffield Department of Surgical Sciences and supported by the European Society of Minimally Invasive Neurological Therapy